

THE BOURBON NEWS.

PUBLISHED EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY IN THE YEAR.

VOLUME XXVII

PARIS, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31 1907

NUMBER 90

DEATHS.

WOODFORD.

—After several months' illness, Mrs. Nannie Brooks Woodford, aged 61 years, wife of Buckner Woodford, cashier of the Bourbon Bank, passed peacefully to rest at her home on Main street at 11:30 o'clock Saturday night surrounded by the members of her family and near relatives. Mrs. Woodford was taken several months ago to a hospital in Lexington for treatment but returned and bore her affliction with great Christian fortitude, she being aware of the fatal nature of her illness.

Mrs. Woodford was the daughter of the late Samuel Brooks, a prominent farmer of this county, who resided on the farm known as the Gilt Edge Stock Farm of the late G. G. White. She was a constant member of the Second Presbyterian church, a noble Christian woman, devoted wife and affectionate mother. She is survived by her husband and three sons, John Woodford, Sam B. Woodford, and Buckner Woodford Jr., and one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Henry Clay, Jr. Mrs. Woodford was a sister of Joseph Brooks, of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. C. F. Clay and Mrs. Ben Woodford, of this county.

The funeral services took place yesterday from the residence at 2 o'clock p. m. and were conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford. The interment was in the Paris cemetery. The pall bearers were her three sons, John Woodford, Samuel B. Woodford and Buckner Woodford, Jr., her son-in-law, Thos. Henry Clay, Jr., and her nephews, Buckner Clay, James B. Woodford, Brooks Clay and Catesby Spears.

MOORE.

—Sitting in her arm chair with her hands folded across her Bible, Mrs. Fannie Thomas Moore, aged 71 years, was found unconscious shortly after 7 o'clock p. m. Saturday evening at her residence on Main street. She was tenderly carried to her bed where she expired in a few moments. Mrs. Moore had been reading her Bible and directed her attendant to go to another room for her Sunday school lesson and upon her returning Mrs. Moore was found as above stated, heart failure being the immediate cause of her death.

Mrs. Moore was born in Bourbon and was a daughter of Moses Thomas. She was twice married, her first husband being Harry Thomas. Her second marriage was to the late Kelly P. Moore of near North Middletown.

Mrs. Moore is survived by one son, Richard Moore, of Mt. Sterling. She had been a life long member of the Christian church and spent a great deal of time in the study of the Bible.

The funeral services took place from the residence yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and were conducted by Elder

Carey E. Morgan. The interment was in Paris cemetery. The pall bearers were as follows: R. M. Rice, Jos. Davis, Chas. Meng, T. G. Barrow, Chas. Clendennin, and Wm. Myall.

DAILEY.

—This community was shocked and a happy home made sad when the spirit of little Virginia Cecil Dailey, at 1 o'clock Saturday, took its flight. Taken sick Christmas day with bronchopneumonia, which developed into meningitis, its precious little life lingered but a short while and the sunshine, that brightened the hearts of fond and devoted parents had disappeared.

It was written "suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not." The tender sympathy of relatives, friends and the people of this community goes out to the bereaved parents in this hour of their greatest loss. The little one was only sixteen months old, pretty and bright for one her age, and being an only child the sorrow of broken hearted parents is assuaged by the joy of the immortality of its precious soul. The funeral services occurred Sunday from the residence on Mt. Airy Avenue at 2 o'clock p. m., Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford officiating, assisted by Elder Carey E. Morgan. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends followed the remains to the Paris cemetery where they were consigned to this last resting place.

BOWLES.

—At his residence on West street Thursday night at 12 o'clock, Ora Bowles, aged 33 years, died of typhoid fever. Mr. Bowles had twice been married, his first wife being Margie Rogers, daughter of the late Sam Rogers, of Nicholas county, and by whom he has one little daughter, who recently inherited twelve thousand dollars from her grandfather's estate.

Mr. Bowles' last wife, who survives, with an infant daughter, was Miss Jennie Alice Evans who is a half sister of Mrs. John W. Boulden, of Maysville.

The remains of Mr. Bowles were taken Friday to the residence of Martin Bowles, father of the deceased who resides near Millersburg, and from whose residence the funeral took place Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Services by Elder Carey E. Morgan. The interment took place in the Millersburg cemetery.

The pall-bearers were: William Peterson, John Purdy, James Fisher, George McConnell, Kirtley Bailey and David Mulcahy.

CLARKE.

—William Clarke, aged 65 years, died Thursday night at his home near Dry Ridge, Ky. Mr. Clarke was a gallant Confederate soldier, serving in the command of Gen. John H. Morgan. Mr. Clarke was a brother of Mrs. R. A. Childers, of this city, who attended the funeral of her brother Saturday.

"In Old Yarrow."

It will be a genuine treat to hear those song birds warble in that great-est of all amateur shows.

K. of P. Social.

At the hall of Rathbone Lodge, Knights of Pythias Thursday night, the Knight rank was conferred upon Thomas Mynes, Ora Speakes, and Ed. D. Speakes, in an elaborate manner, by the degree team of Lilly Lodge, of Carlisle. Nearly fifty members of Carlisle and North Middletown lodges, both of which were instituted by Rathbone lodge, were present. The work of the evening was concluded with a social session which was an enjoyable affair. A number of short addresses were delivered by visiting members and those of the local lodge in which the speakers feelingly referred to the memory of the late ex-Mayor, and Knight, Beni Perry. "Home, Sweet Home" and "My Old Kentucky Home" were sung by Ross and Spencer, of Carlisle.

Enchanting.

"In Old Yarrow" a musical comedy that will enchant the audience from pit to dome.

Prominent Farmer Dies.

John H. Hamilton, aged 64 years, a bachelor farmer residing on the Millersburg and Ruddies Mills pike, died at an early hour yesterday morning of a complication of diseases.

Mr. Hamilton resided on the farm on which he was born and was a substantial and respected citizen. He owned a fine bluegrass farm and was considered wealthy. He is survived by one brother, Mr. William Hamilton, of Millersburg.

It was stated on the streets of Paris yesterday by parties who ought to know that Mr. Hamilton had left the bulk of his estate for charitable purposes. It was also stated that the greater portion was left for the education of worthy and industrious young girls.

The funeral services will occur from the residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services by Elder J. D. Waters assisted by Rev. H. R. Kerr. Burial in the cemetery in Millersburg. The pall-bearers will be as follows: Honorary, J. G. Smedley and Dr. Burroughs; Active, William Mayll, John N. Davis, John S. Caldwell, G. S. Allen, Nat Collier and Thomas Marshall.

Don't say after the show that, "I do wish I had gone to see that local talent show 'In Old Yarrow.'" Get your ticket now and go.

GOOD HOLIDAY CLOTHES!

Your sentiment at Christmas time can be expressed fully as well through a gift of practical character as one of perishable kind. If you contemplate giving a male friend or relative such a useful gift as an Overcoat or Suit, visit the James Store. Good Clothes appeal to one's pride, one's comfort and one's vanity, and hold the givers in snug remembrance for long periods of time.

Overcoats,	Suits,	Raincoats,
$2.50 to $40.00.	$12.50 to $35.	$12.50 to $40.00
Dress Suits,
$40.00 to $60.00.
Smoking Jackets, Bath and Lounging Robes.

Make your selections while the assortment is perfect. It is at present the largest and most complete ever shown in Kentucky.

A splendid variety of two-tone materials, Cheviots, Broadcloth, Flannel, Etc.

Smoking Jackets	$5.00 to $15.00
Lounging Robes	$5.00 to $20.00
Bath Robes	$4.00 to $15.00
Fancy and Full Dress Vests	$2.50 to $12.50

Neckwear	50c to $2.00	Shirts	50c to $1.50
Hosiery	10c to $2.50	Underwear	$1.00 to $7.50
Mufflers	50c to $5.00	Handkerchiefs	10c to $1.50
Gloves	50c to $7.50	Suspenders	25c to $1.50
Night Robes	50c to $5.00	Pajamas	$3.00 to $5.00

Silk Hats, Umbrellas, Canes, Opera Hats, Shoes, Leather Hat Boxes, Hand Bags, Dress Suit Cases. Everything put in boxes free of charge.

C. R. JAMES, Head To Foot Outfitter, Paris.

FRANK & CO.

THANKS—We desire to extend to the public our heartiest thanks for their very liberal patronage for the past year. For the coming year we promise a larger and more complete stock than ever before, and the same fair business methods as in the past. On these grounds we solicit your patronage.

STUPENDOUS REDUCTION

In all Lines of Ready-to-Wear Garments for Ladies and Misses.

Every Garment in the Entire Stock has been Remarkd at a Startling Reduction—Profit has been Lost Sight of and Costs Cuts But Little Figure in this Great Offering of Seasonable Merchandise.

COME AND SEE! You will be pleased with what we have to offer

CLOAKS, SUITS, SKIRTS, FURS, WAISTS, Etc.

FRANK & CO.

PARIS, - - KENTUCKY.

